

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- Executive Summary5
- Preface and Acknowledgments by Zahra Parvinian.....7
- Introduction to the First Edition by Mary Lou Morgan 10
- Introduction to the Second Edition by Debbie Field..... 13

Understanding The Good Food Box: Is This The Right Program For Your Community?

- History of The Good Food Box 17
- Philosophy..... 18
- Good Food Box Guiding Principles 19
- Week in the Life of FoodShare’s Good Food Box Program20
- Our Customers: Who are they and why do they purchase The Good Food Box?.....22
- Good Food Markets, Another Option.....24

Starting Your Own Good Food Box Program

- Choosing Goals for Your Program.....25
- Identifying Your Target Group and Making the Program Suit Their Needs27
- The Fresh Produce Distribution Industry 28
- Competitive Analysis29
- Marketing Plan – The 5 P’s 31
- Management Structure..... 35
- Stages of Expansion36
- Financial Plan..... 41

Guide To Produce Sourcing And Management

- Produce Sourcing 45
- Buying Practices 46
- Box Contents and Produce Mix 48
- Ordering Spreadsheets and Technique 51
- Presentation of Boxes 51
- Sample Box Contents..... 52
- Produce Management Basics 53
- Organic Good Food Boxes 54

Human Resources and Volunteer Coordination

- Volunteers 57
- Staff..... 57
- Good Food Box Drop-off Coordinators 58
- Packing Day Volunteers 60
- Coordinating a Packing Day 61

The Good Food Box Newsletter

- Why Add a Newsletter to the Good Food Box?..... 63
- Writing a Newsletter That Speaks to Your Customers..... 63
- Newsletter Resources 64
- Does the Newsletter Get Read? 64

Profiles of Other Good Food Box Programs

- Montreal 65
- Saskatoon..... 67
- Innisfil 68

The Evolution of the Good Food Box

- The Origins of the Good Food Box Program..... 71
- FoodShare Programs 2008 75

Appendices

- Good Food Box Coordinator Package 81
- Sample Ordering Spreadsheet 84
- Frequently Asked Questions..... 85
- Produce Buying Policy 87
- Good Food Box Order Form..... 89
- Produce Storage Guidelines 90
- Good Food Box Sales Figures..... 91
- Local Produce Statistics..... 93
- Good Food Box Yearly Sales Trends 97
- Good Food Box Newsletter..... 101
- Good Food Box Flyer..... 105
- Annual Good Food Box Farmers Meeting Flyer 107

